The spectacular Gardens of the American Rose Center, located on a 118-acre wooded tract in Shreveport, Louisiana, and is home to the national headquarters of the American Rose Society. It is the nation's largest park dedicated to roses!

The gardens were officially dedicated in 1974 when the American Rose Society headquarters moved to Shreveport from Ohio. Today, the gardens feature more than 65 individual rose gardens and 20,000 rosebushes and a variety of companion plants, sculptures and fountains.

Founded in 1892, the American Rose Society is the oldest single plant horticultural society in America. The ARS is an educational, nonprofit organization dedicated exclusively to the cultivation and enjoyment of roses. ARS supports its members by providing educational programs, resourceful publications, and continued research. We have more than 300 nationally affiliated rose societies in our network. ARS is headquartered on the grounds of the beautiful American Rose Center near Shreveport, Louisiana.
